DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

1. Claims 1-4, 6-8, 10 and 13-19 are allowed.

5       Claim 1 is limited to a customizable cerumen guard. The cerumen guard of this claim requires a) a hollow, cylindrical insert and b) a plurality of customizable caps. Although Bisgaard anticipates the hollow, cylindrical insert (Non-Final at 2-4, 21 February 2008), Bisgaard does not anticipate the plurality of customizable caps. In particular, the plurality of customizable caps each has a) an inner-cap surface to engage 10 the ridge of the insert to releasably attach one of the customizable caps with the insert and b) a central opening in communication with a number of peripheral openings, where the peripheral openings further include c) a cerumen-spreading device positioned in the peripheral openings. On the other hand, Bisgaard discloses a cap with peripheral openings, but no central opening. Bisgaard at figs.1-4 & 7. Haertl discloses a cap 12.4
15 with both central and peripheral openings 33, but the cap of Haertl does not include a cerumen-spreading device positioned in the peripheral openings. Haertl at figs.10-11. Instead, the cap of Haertl includes a membrane 14.4 located behind the cap openings. Id. Thus, this claim is allowable over the cited prior art.

20       Claims 10 and 16 require, similarly to claim 1, a customizable cerumen guard including a hollow, cylindrical insert and a plurality of customizable caps. The customizable caps of these claims are identical to the customizable caps of claim 1.

Accordingly, neither Bisgaard nor Haertl discloses all elements of the customizable caps of claims 10 and 16. Therefore, this claim is allowable over the cited prior art.

Claims 2-4, 6-8 13-15 and 17-19 depend variously from claims 1, 10 and 16. Accordingly, these claims are allowable over the cited prior art for at least the same 5 reasons.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
